The World Health Organizaition says CO2 levels above 1000 PPM are toxic. You're probably reading this in a room with over 1500 PPM. This causes daily headaches, decision fatigue, and cognitive decline. In the long term, we experience poorer lung, mental as well as heart health. greenwaterHOME uses the photosynthetic power of micro-algae to generate fresh oxygen and capture carbon exponentially faster than plants & trees. We also use HEPA, carbon, and pre-filters to capture PM2.5 and other pollutants like traditional air purifiers. Our likely customers are new parents, health-conscious individuals and Commercial Real Estate developers as our products can improve WELL and LEED ratings.
